Honor for Burns Also.

Georgie Burns was co-star with Per ritt, as a home run from the little out-fielders cudgel resulted in the only run of the game. Georgie delivered his mee ful smash in the first inning, and though it was a bit tainted, it was worth its weight in gold to J. J. McGraw. Burns hit on a line over Zeider's head and half way between Paskert and Flack. Flack gave swift chase, and ordinarily would have been only a triple, but Max slipped and fell on the wet grass when he tried to stop it, and batted it still deeper into right field. By the time the ball reached the plate Burns had circled the bases.

Mrs. Hucknall First to Score.

Mrs. Hucknall scored first, winning the are Fluckhall scored first, winning the 377 yard first hole in 4 by holing a good putt after her approach had fallen con-siderably short of the green. She lost the next, however, when she overran on her third shot and falled to get down in 5, but became 1 up again when her opponent overapproached at the third They halved the fourth and M Stockton, after playing her tee shot to within twenty feet of the flag at the fifth, ran down her putt for a 2 and won there, making the match all square again.

After halving the sixth and seventh Mrs. Stockton came within an inch of making the eighth in two strokes. Her drive nearly reached the green, and her thirty foot put came within two inches of the cup. She won in 3, Mrs. Hucknall taking a stroke more.

Mrs. Stockton missad has approach so.

Mrs. Stocktonemissed her approach going to the long ninth and Mrs. Huck-nall won in 7 to 8. At this point the match was all square, Mrs. Stockton having reached the turn in 46 to her opponent's 47.

Both made the tenth in 5 and Mrs.

Hucknall won the eleventh, 6 to 7, and in the following hole the match again was all square.

Mrs. Hucknail halved the thirteenth, hut Mrs. Stockton took the fourteenth, 6 to 7, when her opponent overplayed her approach. The next hole was halved her approach. The next note was balved and Mrs. Hucknall also halved the six-This left Mrs. Stockton 1 with I holes to play.

Winner Comes Home in 48.

Both players reached the green on their fourth shot going to the seven-teenth, a matter of 537 yards. Mrs. Stockton was weak on her approach putt, the ball landing six feet short of the cup, and she missed the next. Mrs. Hucknall won there in 6 to 7, squaring the match both women were short of the bunker, but they reached the green on the third. Mrs. Stockton was away, and once again her attempt was weak, the ball stopping about eight feet short of the pin. She missed her next by a rolling her approach putt to within two feet of the hole, got down in 5 and won
